COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Quizzes: 70% of final grade

Quizzes are due on the dates and at the times indicated in the schedule below. They are take-home, closed book, closed notes assignments. The honor code applies. Each quiz will typically have two parts: (i) a passage for you to translate from Greek to English (selected from previously assigned material); (ii) a set of questions about morphology and other grammatical details (similar but not necessarily identical to previously assigned exercises).

Final exam: 30% of final grade

A take-home, closed book, closed notes exam, due at the end of exam period. The honor code applies. The final exam will have the same basic format as the quizzes, but it will be longer, and will include material from all the chapters we will have covered over the course of the semester.

Submission and grading policy for quizzes and exams

Ideally, you will submit your work on all the assignments by their deadlines, rendering the following information redundant. However, if you submit a quiz or your final exam after, but within twenty-four hours of, its deadline, I will grade your work, but I will also deduct a 10% penalty for late submission. If you have still not submitted a quiz or your final exam twenty-four hours after it is due, I will not grade your work on that assignment (i.e., you will receive "zero" for it).

Preparation for class, attendance, and contribution to the collective learning process

Barring emergencies and other reasonable exceptions, you are expected to attend all class meetings, arrive on time and having completed the homework, and contribute positively to the collective learning process. Please be aware that, while I have not assigned a specific portion of the final grade to this category, multiple absences or other deficiencies in this category may nonetheless impact your final grade negatively. If you believe you have a valid reason for missing class or arriving late or unprepared on a particular day (e.g. personal illness, death in the family or other family emergency, religious observance), please contact me to discuss your situation.

As was true in Greek 101, I will assign homework for you to prepare in advance of each class, and we will review it in class. You are not required to submit your homework, but I will be happy to take it in and check it for errors if you ask me to do so.

Rice Honor Code

In this course, all students will be held to the standards of the Rice Honor Code, a code that you pledged to honor when you matriculated at this institution. If you are unfamiliar with the details of this code and how it is administered, you should consult the Honor System Handbook at http://honor.rice.edu/honor-system-handbook/. This handbook outlines the University's expectations for the integrity of your academic work, the procedures for resolving alleged violations of those expectations, and the rights and responsibilities of students and faculty members throughout the process.

Disability Support Services

If you have a documented disability or other condition that may affect academic performance please: 1) make sure this documentation is on file with Disability Support Services (Allen Center, Room 111 / adarice@rice.edu / x5841) to determine the accommodations you need; and 2) talk with me to discuss your accommodation needs.

Syllabus Change Policy

This syllabus is subject to change at any point in the semester if the instructor deems it necessary or advisable.
